

JOHN A. ORPHANIDYS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The John A. Orphanidys Scholarship Fund was established to recognize Florida Vocational Rehabilitation Graduate Students, who have expressed commitment to careers in Private Practice.

This Scholarship Fund was originally proposed by our Colleague and friend, John A. Orphanidys, MA, CRC, CVE, CCM. The 2014 First Award Scholarship was presented at the IARP 2014 National Conference in San Diego, CA. Two First Award Scholarships were presented at the IARP 2016 National Conference in Pittsburg, PA. The 2018 Scholarship Awards are offered as follows:

First Award: Attendance at the IARP 2018 National Conference in Charlotte, North Carolina, October 25-27, 2018. The award includes conference registration, airfare, hotel, and per diem for meals and miscellaneous expenses.

The Four Runner up Awards: One year paid Professional Candidate membership in IARP, to include state membership for the Florida IARP Chapter.

Your contributions are solicited to support the Scholarship Fund for Vocational Rehabilitation Graduate Students originally proposed in 2005 by our friend and professional colleague, John A. Orphanidys. This Scholarship fund has been established to recognize our friend and his wishes to support rehabilitation counselors in the private sector.

Forward Your Contributions or Inquiry To:
Rick Robinson, Chair
John A. Orphanidys Scholarship Fund
PO Box 40050
Jacksonville, FL 32203
Email: rick@rwrehab.com
Phone: (904) 712-4419